10,000 baby boomers will turn 65 each day for the next 19 years!

Social Security's financial impact on families is much more than most realize. Not understanding how Social Security benefits work, costs eligible US citizens thousands in retirement, disability and survivor benefits which also affects spouses and children as well.

Faye, a national expert in Social Security planning, speaks regularly at live events, leads workshops and has appeared on national and local TV and radio shows. Through highlighting real case studies and using her unique ability to break down complex concepts in an easy to digest manner. Faye's cv includes televised appearances on Lauren Lakes Paternity Court & The Elizabeth Cooper Show, radio guest engagements on Atlanta's Most Trusted Advisors & Atlanta Business Radio's Eric Holtzclaw Show. Faye live presents and leads workshops for a variety of civic, professional and corporate groups including Atlanta Independent Women's Network, Decatur Business Association, Kiwanis, Senior Connections, Life Enrichment Senior Services, and more.
